

Investigative Reporting (3-2010)

U.S. Websites:

<http://centerforinvestigativereporting.org/files/RaisingHell.pdf>

<http://www.publicintegrity.org/projects/>

<http://www.centerforinvestigativereporting.org/tools>

<http://www.j-learning.org/>

<http://centerforinvestigativereporting.org/files/RaisingHell.pdf>

<http://www.counterpunch.org/links.html>

<http://businessjournalism.org/2010/01/21/all-you-need-to-know-resources-for-investigative-reporting/>

<http://www.ire.org>

<http://www.propublica.org>

<http://www.brandeis.edu/investigate>

<http://jrn.columbia.edu>

<http://www.pewcenter.org/>

<http://www.wiretapmag.org/>

<http://invw.org>

<http://www.reporter.org/>

www.wikileaks.com

Fact Check Websites:

www.snopes.com

www.FactCheck.com

www.PolitiFact.com

Global Investigative Reporting:

<http://globalinvestigativejournalism.org>

<http://www.icfj.org/Resources/tabid/209/Default.aspx>

<http://www.arij.net>

<http://www.tcij.org>

<http://tbij.com/>

<http://www.investigationsfund.org/>

<http://www.irene-reporters.org>

<http://www.ifex.org/>

<http://www2.etown.edu/vl/intlcomm.html>

For other international sources, see The Center for International Media Assistance (www.ned.org/cima), a project of the National Endowment for Democracy, and their 2007 report, “Global Investigative Journalism: Strategies for Support,” by David Kaplan.